

Woodland Waters Conservation Reserve

30W Hunters Road
Mernda, 3754
(can be accessed via Waterview Drive)

Natural Heritage trail with historic places and points of interest, local flora, fauna and ecological values. Suitable for all active families and pleasure walkers, please note dogs are not permitted.

Time - 1 hr

Difficulty - Low

Accessibility - Good

Woodland Waters
Conservation Reserve

Further Information
Parks & Open Space
City of Whittlesea
Tel: (03) 9401 0524
www.whittlesea.vic.gov.au

About

Woodland Waters Conservation Reserve is an 8.1 hectare site that has been set aside for biodiversity conservation through residential development in Mernda. The reserve aims to rebuild and restore the native vegetation and native animals that existed prior to European Settlement.

Past agricultural grazing of the area has left the site with degraded soils and lacking biodiversity other than the stand of Red Gums.

